

The NJ Do Not Call List is highly effective. I registered land line phones and cell phones on any "Do Not Call" list available. I also have "opted out" from any available selections of my current accounts and business dealings. I do not want to be contacted by telemarketers by phone, by mail, by cell, by email, or by any other future innovation. Thank you for retaining the current level of filtering offered by the NJ Do Not Call List.